

Chico Hot Springs Resort,
Montana — Sept 19-21, 2022

Join us to learn about Collaborative Conservation together with other conservation practitioners, academics, students, and volunteers as well as tribal, industry, and agency representatives.

KEYNOTES

The History of Collaborative Conservation
Collaboration on the Colorado River
Cross-Cultural Collaboration and Yellowstone National Park

FEATURING LARA TOMOV'S "LIFE IN THE LAND" AND MONTANA CASE STUDIES

Big Hole Valley
Blackfoot Nation
Central Montana Plains
Seeley-Swan Region

PEER-TO-PEER WORKSHOPS

Measuring Collaborative Impacts
Emerging Leadership
Storytelling, Communications and Media
Conservation Finance
Cross-Cultural Partnerships
Skills in Our Collaborator's Toolbox

CREATING SPACE FOR MENTORSHIP

Mentors/mentees will meet in-person to connect and support each other throughout the conference to build community across the West.

TRIPS INTO THE FIELD FOR IMMERSIVE LEARNING

Predator Conflicts and Tourism Impacts in Rural Communities in Tom Miner Basin
Cross-Cultural Partnerships and Historic Land-use at the Story Ranch Buffalo Drive Lines
Impacts from Recreation and Tourism on the Yellowstone River

Register Here
Become a Sponsor Here
Review Summary Agenda